Community Partners

The Art League of Jacksonville would like to form partnerships within the Jacksonville community to build the foundation that will support the arts, inspire creative thinkers and consolidate efforts of artists and educators with a single vision. Through these partnerships we can work to create a unified approach to providing the people of Jacksonville with an affordable and engaging means to the advancement of arts in the various communities that make up Jacksonville. Make a difference in lives throughout Jacksonville invest in an organization that is a true outreach with a lasting impact.

We are looking for any type of support, financial, facilities or promotion. Please contact us today for partnership and naming opportunities available. Email artsjax@me.com with questions or call us at 904.861.5117.
